Third Sunday of Luke

The Lord’s Prayer in Spanish:

El Padrenuestro

Vamos a habitar en la tierra como en el cielo y dándonos nuestro pan de hoy.

We meet and greet one another and where, together, we meet the Lord.

If you are interested in... please contact Shu Yeung at shuh_yeung@yahoo.com or at 415-518-8780.

We explore Christian theology and practice by reading selections from the Bible.

Please see Cathy Dermitzakis, Irene Poulakidas, or Anthony Ambus for more information about our Greek School program, please contact Shu at shuh.yeung@yahoo.com or at 415-518-8780.

DANCE PRACTICE TODAY: Dance practice will take place today, beginning at 12:30 p.m.

We put out a simple call, perhaps adding a class for adults. For more information about our Greek School program, please contact Shu at shuh.yeung@yahoo.com or at 415-518-8780.

This class is especially intended for those who are thinking about converting to Orthodoxy and for family members and friends who would like to support them on their journey. It is also open to people who are already Orthodox and who would like to deepen their understanding of their faith. We explore Christian theology and practice by reading selections from Scripture, the Church Fathers, the lives of the Saints, and other texts representative of the Orthodox worldview. These readings are the starting point for our discussions, which aim at clarifying doctrine and worship and helping us to discover (or rediscover) why we belong in the Church. If you are interested in attending the class, please contact Alexandros Kozák at orthodoxy-agkoeck@skneakemail.com. Name: The Introduction to Orthodoxy class is now being offered two Sundays a month. It meets in the second-floor conference room, beginning at 9 a.m. In October, the class will meet today, October 7, and on October 21.

Interested in Renting for Parish Council? Please see Kathy Dermitzakis, Irene Poulakidas, or Anthony Ambus. As the Nominating Committee, they will place names in nomination at Parish Assembly on October 28. A mandatory meeting for new candidates with Father Stephen will take place on Tuesday, November 13, at 7 p.m. In order to become a candidate, however, you need to have been a Steward of the Cathedral for at least one year prior to declaring your candidacy. The declaration form states more particulars. Together with the Dean, the elected lay members of the Parish Council administer the affairs of the parish, as delineated in the Parish Regulations of our Archdiocese.

EPISTLE READING OF THE DAY: This morning’s Apostolic Reading is from St. Paul’s second letter to the Corinthians, Chapter 11, Verses 31-33; Chapter 12, Verses 1-9. It is found in our books on pages 118-119.

The prayers are offered two Sundays a month.

We simply drop in the temptation, and deliver us from the evil one.

PUTTING THINGS IN ORDER AFTER THE FESTIVAL: We utilized the courtyard for the first time, during this year’s Festival. When everything was picked up, we noticed the grime all over the courtyard. However, the pavers were all cleaned last week, in preparation for other outdoor events. We have a little way to go, to winding down this phase of construction (before we begin work on the interior). But, let’s be positive. Consider what you have accomplished so far, in faithful response to our God, when he told Moses: “Build me a Sanctuary, and I will appear among you.” (from the Septuagint: Καὶ ποιήσεις µου ἁγίασµα, καὶ ὀφθήσοµαι ἐν ὑµῖν. (Exodus 25:8). This all takes vision; it also takes determination and faith. For you are doing something extraordinary: you are building His sanctuary, a sacred space, right the heart of one of the world’s premier cities. Here, the Orthodox Christian faith is poised to proclaim the Gospel message of salvation to a whole new generation of worshipers. These are, indeed, exciting times!

“The Church shall be a home for Orthodox Christians from every ethnic and national background. It shall be a house of prayer for all humankind, in which the Holy Name of our Triune God shall be extolled and all of creation sanctified.”
