EPistle Reading: This morning’s Apostolic reading is from St. Paul’s first letter to the Hebrews, Chapter 11, Verses 24-26; 32-40. It is found in our books on pages 138-139.

The stone that had been sealed before your tomb by the Jews, and the soldiers guarding did watch over Your pure and sacred Body, O Savior, the third day after Your resurrection, the Ascension Cathedral, Oakland, beginning at 2:30 p.m. Following the Divine Liturgy, a concert will take place in the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy, the Cathedral’s Greek School will offer its Independence Day program, which will feature music by Theodore Bogdanos, Steve Cardiasmenos, Frank Desby and Theodore Bogdanos, Steve Cardiasmenos, Frank Desby Tikey.

The Introduction to Orthodoxy: This class is especially intended for those who are thinking about converting to Orthodoxy and for family members and friends who would like to support them on their journey. It is also open to people who are already Orthodox and who would like to deepen their understanding of their faith. We explore Christian theology and practice by reading selections from Scripture, the Church Fathers, the lives of the Saints, and other texts representing the Orthodox worldviews. These readings are the starting point for our discussions, which aim at clarifying doctrine and worship and helping us to discover (or rediscover) why we belong in the Church. If you are interested in attending the class, please contact Alexandros Kozak at orthodoxy-agkokazak@gmail.com. Note: The Introduction to Orthodoxy class is now being offered two Sundays a month. It meets in the second-floor conference room, beginning at 9 a.m. This month, the class will meet next Sunday, March 24.

COUNTING DOWN TO MARCH 25th: March 25th marks the day when “the word became flesh” (John 1:14). It is the Name Day of this Cathedral parish. It is also Greek Independence Day. We will hold a series of celebrations, beginning Friday, March 22, with the Second Salutations, at 7 p.m. We continue on Saturday, March 23, with a building fund benefit concert, at 4 p.m., followed by a champagne reception (see the announcement below). On Sunday, March 24, at the conclusion of the Divine Liturgy, the Cathedral’s Greek School will offer its Independence Day program, which will include a play entitled To Kriti Schila (the Secret School). The evening of March 24, Great Vespers will be celebrated at 7 p.m., presided over by Metropolitan Nikitas. Following Vespers, a dinner will take place, the offering of Angelo Koutoulas. On Monday, March 25, Metropolitan Nikitas will celebrate the Divine Liturgy, which will begin at 10:15 a.m., and which will be preceded by Orthros, at 9 a.m. Following the Divine Liturgy, a luncheon will take place, for which the donation is $20. The proceeds will benefit the ministries of the Cathedral Philoptochos. During the luncheon, His Eminence will address us on how the Church responds to contemporary issues, including human trafficking and child slavery, including “creative” approaches in addressing these issues. Do plan on attending the luncheon on March 25.

PARISH COUNCIL MEETING TODAY: The Parish Council meeting will begin at 12:30 p.m. The meeting will take place in the conference room.

SUPPORT YOUR CHURCH THROUGH STEWARDSHIP: We thank you for making your 2019 Stewardship support a priority. Your support makes possible the very existence of this parish, and its ability to offer Liturgical services, educational, & philanthropic programs. We have thanked all 2019 Stewards (as of February 15) in the March Herald.

100th ANNIVERSARY COMMEMORATIVE BOOK: For further information about your participation and that of your family, please contact Jim Loukas, jim@loukas.com.
PARKING: We have signed a 6-month trial agreement with Golden State Parking so that, as soon as it obtains the necessary permits, it can operate our parking component. All permits but one have been obtained. We anticipate the permit by the fire department will be obtained as soon as the fire sprinklers and the hydrant have become operational, hopefully this week. Meanwhile, we’ve signed a contract with Albert Electric, to finalize the electrical work, finish the lobbies and install the necessary doors. However, we will need to install the final gates in order to satisfy the “clear path of travel” requirements, which includes the final inspection of the elevator. We’ve decided to embark upon a renewed Capital Campaign. Our goal is to raise $1 million in 2019. As we go forward, let’s stay positive and focused. Consider what you have accomplished so far! As with Moses, we hear God speaking to us: “Build me a Sanctuary, and I will appear among you.” (from the Septuagint: Καὶ ποιήσεις µοι ἁγίασµα, καὶ ὀφθήσοµαι ἐν ὑµῖν). Building also takes vision, determination and faith. You are doing something extraordinary: you are building His sanctuary, a sacred space, right the heart of one of the world’s premier cities. Here, the Orthodox Christian faith is poised to proclaim the Gospel message of salvation to a whole new generation of worshippers.

“The Church shall be a home for Orthodox Christians from every ethnic and national background. It shall be a house of prayer for all humankind, in which the Holy Name of our Triune God shall be extolled and all of creation sanctified.”
