SUNDAY, MARCH 8, 2020

FIRST SUNDAY OF GREAT LENT

EPISODE READING OF THE DAY: This morning’s Apostolic Reading is from Saint Paul’s Letter to the Hebrews, Chapter 11, Verse 24-26, 32-40. It is found in our books on pages 138-139.

INTRODUCTION TO ORTHODOXY: This class is especially intended for those who are thinking about converting to Orthodoxy and for family members and friends who would like to support them on their journey. It is also open to people who are already Orthodox and who would like to deepen their understanding of their faith. We explore Christian theology and practice by reading selections from Scripture, the Church Fathers, the lives of the Saints, and other texts representative of the Orthodox worldview. These readings are the starting point for our discussions, which aim at clarifying doctrine and worship and helping us to discover (or rediscover) why we belong in the Church.

SECOND SALUTATIONS THIS FRIDAY: On the first five Fridays of Great Lent, Salutations to the Virgin Mary are held in Orthodox churches. The origin of the service comes from 626 AD, when Constantinople was besieged by a the Avars. Patriarch Sergios led a procession around the city wall with an icon of the Theotokos, and the people prayed all night without sitting, hence the word akathistos. The City was spared. The service on the fifth Friday of Great Lent is the Akathist. Services on each of the Friday evenings begin at 7 pm.

DEALING WITH THE CORONAVIRUS: Health officials advise hand washing is the most effective way of staving off this virus. We should also reframe from the normal ways we greet one another, through handshakes and hugs. It goes without saying that if someone is not feeling up to par, that person should stay at home. Meanwhile, and until further notice, we are a closed community and will not be gathering together. Until otherwise notified, we will follow the same guidelines as before. We earnestly pray for the abatement of this disease, as we take steps necessary to protect ourselves and one another.

BASKETBALL PLAYOFFS/CHAMPIONSHIPS: Playoffs will take place this Saturday, March 14 at Saint Nicholas, San Jose, as follows: Girls Elementary School teams at 10 am and 11 am; Boys Elementary School at 12 noon and 1 pm, and Boys Middle School at 2 pm and 3 pm. The Championships will take place on Sunday, March 15 at the Ascension Cathedral, Oakland, as follows: Girls Elementary School at 2 pm, Boys Elementary School at 3:30 pm, Girls Middle School at 4:30 pm, and Boys Middle School at 5:45 pm.

STEWARDSHIP: Your support makes possible the very existence of this parish, and its ability to offer Liturgical services, educational, & philanthropic programs. Let’s meet our goal of 400 Stewardship pledges for 2020. As of today, we have 120 2020 Stewards. We thank you for your support. In case you have misplaced your card, additional cards are available at the parea! For questions about Stewardship, please see our Stewardship chair, Dean Nicolacakis.

PHILOPTOCHOS GENERAL MEETING: The Ladies Philoptochos will meet in the conference room, beginning at 12:30 pm.

TODAY IS THE SUNDAY OF ORTHODOXY: The brief service at the conclusion of today’s Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great commemorates the restoration of icons and, generally, of religious symbols at the Seventh Ecumenical Council, held in 787 AD and, effectively, in 843 AD.

Letter to the EPISTLE READING OF THE DAY: This morning’s Gospel Reading is from the Holy Gospel according to St. John, Chapter 1, Verses 41-51. It is found in our books on pages 289-291.

We thank you for your support. In our books on page 288-290.

The origin of the service comes from 626 AD, when Constantinople was besieged by the Avars. Patriarch Sergios led a procession around the city wall with an icon of the Theotokos, and the people prayed all night without sitting, hence the word akathistos. The City was spared. The service on the fifth Friday of Great Lent is the Akathist. Services on each of the Friday evenings begin at 7 pm.

SECOND SALUTATIONS THIS FRIDAY: On the first five Fridays of Great Lent, Salutations to the Virgin Mary are held in Orthodox churches. The origin of the service comes from 626 AD, when Constantinople was besieged by the Avars. Patriarch Sergios led a procession around the city wall with an icon of the Theotokos, and the people prayed all night without sitting, hence the word akathistos. The City was spared. The service on the fifth Friday of Great Lent is the Akathist. Services on each of the Friday evenings begin at 7 pm.

DEALING WITH THE CORONAVIRUS: Health officials advise hand washing is the most effective way of staving off this virus. We should also reframe from the normal ways we greet one another, through handshakes and hugs. It goes without saying that if someone is not feeling up to par, that person should stay at home. Meanwhile, and until further notice, we are a closed community and will not be gathering together. Until otherwise notified, we will follow the same guidelines as before. We earnestly pray for the abatement of this disease, as we take steps necessary to protect ourselves and one another.

BASKETBALL PLAYOFFS/CHAMPIONSHIPS: Playoffs will take place this Saturday, March 14 at Saint Nicholas, San Jose, as follows: Girls Elementary School teams at 10 am and 11 am; Boys Elementary School at 12 noon and 1 pm, and Boys Middle School at 2 pm and 3 pm. The Championships will take place on Sunday, March 15 at the Ascension Cathedral, Oakland, as follows: Girls Elementary School at 2 pm, Boys Elementary School at 3:30 pm, Girls Middle School at 4:30 pm, and Boys Middle School at 5:45 pm.

STEWARDSHIP: Your support makes possible the very existence of this parish, and its ability to offer Liturgical services, educational, & philanthropic programs. Let’s meet our goal of 400 Stewardship pledges for 2020. As of today, we have 120 2020 Stewards. We thank you for your support. In case you have misplaced your card, additional cards are available at the parea! For questions about Stewardship, please see our Stewardship chair, Dean Nicolacakis.

TODAY IS THE SUNDAY OF ORTHODOXY: The brief service at the conclusion of today’s Divine Liturgy of St. Basil the Great commemorates the restoration of icons and, generally, of religious symbols at the Seventh Ecumenical Council, held in 787 AD and, effectively, in 843 AD.

PHILOPTOCHOS GENERAL MEETING: The Ladies Philoptochos will meet in the conference room, beginning at 12:30 pm.

TODAY IS SUNDAY STREETS: Valencia Street is closed to through traffic, although we are accessing our parking for purposes of attending the Divine Liturgy. Sunday Streets is a big block party that takes place twice a year. Shops and restaurants participate in selling street food to the public, and there is music playing, games, and the like for the enjoyment of the general public. For the first time, the Cathedral is participating by selling gyros, frappédées, fakés soup, and saláta to all those walking by. You are all invited to enjoy the food, music, weather, and parade! We hope this will develop into a mini Greek festival, bringing people to this end of Valencia Street, where the Cathedral has had its home for almost 100 years.

SECOND SALUTATIONS THIS FRIDAY: On the first five Fridays of Great Lent, Salutations to the Virgin Mary are held in Orthodox churches. The origin of the service comes from 626 AD, when Constantinople was besieged by the Avars. Patriarch Sergios led a procession around the city wall with an icon of the Theotokos, and the people prayed all night without sitting, hence the word akathistos. The City was spared. The service on the fifth Friday of Great Lent is the Akathist. Services on each of the Friday evenings begin at 7 pm.

DEALING WITH THE CORONAVIRUS: Health officials advise hand washing is the most effective way of staving off this virus. We should also refrain from the normal ways we greet one another, through handshakes and hugs. It goes without saying that if someone is not feeling up to par, that person should stay at home. Meanwhile, and until further notice, we are adjusting our Community Kitchen format: instead of having guests assemble for a meal, we will package dinners in to-go boxes and distribute them for takeout. We earnestly pray for the abatement of this disease, as we take steps necessary to protect ourselves and one another.
PARKING: Having passed our Final Fire and Electrical Inspections on, December 3, 2019, we are complying with additional requirements imposed by the Building Department, namely, an interior fire rated wall, the final lobby doors, the Valencia Street gates and the walkway from the lobby to Valencia Street, so that we can implement our Conditional Use Permit and operate the garage full-time. We are concurrently addressing drainage issues. As we go forward, let’s stay positive and focused. Consider what you have accomplished so far! As with Moses, 3200 years ago, so in our own day we hear God speaking, telling us: “Build me a Sanctuary, and I will appear among you.” (Exodus 25:8). All this requires vision, determination and faith. You have it all: keep reminding yourselves. You are accomplishing something extraordinary here, for you are building His sanctuary—a great sacred space, right the heart of one of the world’s premier cities. Here, our Orthodox Christian faith is poised to proclaim the Gospel message of salvation to a whole new generation of worshipers! May God remember you always, in His heavenly Kingdom!

“The Church shall be a home for Orthodox Christians from every ethnic and national background. It shall be a house of prayer for all humankind, in which the Holy Name of our Triune God shall be extolled and all of creation sanctified.”