HAPPY BIRTHDAY, NEKTARIOS McKnight: Today is the birthday of Nektarios McKnight, our Ecclesiarch. He is 80 years young. We don't say sprouts of age (make it to 100), but, rather, make it at least to be as Moses, who lived to 120! Many happy returns, Nektarios.

HONORING THOSE WHO SERVE LUNCHEON TODAY: Following today's Divine Liturgy, the Cathedral will honor with a luncheon: Ted Leventis, John Panomitros, and Annette Chiappari. They will be honored as three individuals who serve our community in an exemplary way. The luncheon will take place in the Cathedral's Korinthias Hall, and will benefit the Building Fund. The donation is $35 per person, $15 for children 12 and under. Over 200 guests are expected. And, we are told, some $50,000 was raised to benefit the building fund! We would like to make this luncheon an annual event, to benefit the building fund, as we stop and say thank you to individuals who make a difference, by serving. The Annunciation Cathedral community is indeed blessed to have many such individuals.

INTRODUCTION TO ORTHODOXY: (Sundays, 9 a.m., upstairs). This class is especially intended for those who are thinking about converting to Orthodoxy and for family members and friends who would like to support them on their journey, but it is also open to people who are already Orthodox and who would like to deepen their understanding of their faith. We explore Christian theology and practice through reading selections of Scripture, the Church Fathers, the lives of the Saints, and other texts representative of the Orthodox worldview. These readings are the starting point for our discussions, which aim at clarifying doctrine and worship and helping us to discover (or rediscover), week after week, why we belong in the Church. If you are interested in attending the class, please contact Alexandros Kozák at orthodoxy-agkozak@sneakemail.com.
FULL STEAM AHEAD: We’re moving full steam ahead on our building project!
Our landmark Cathedral, which is shaping up to be a center of our faith in the heart of the City, is nearing completion of the exterior. The entrenchment drain is being constructed, as are the housing for the garage exhaust ducts, and the archways, one at the old walkway, the other joining the new Cathedral and the chapel. We will also install temporary doors (the permanent doors will be added when the interior is completed, before using the space). Then, there’s exterior stone, columns, and ground pavers. That’s about it for the exterior. (Now for the garage: we hope to start using the garage in about 90 days.) As for the interior: we hope to begin the upper wall installation by the end of 2017, as your generosity permits. In order for us to continue, we need your prayers and your continued financial support, that is, some $4 million. We 2 more years to for the interior to be complete. You should be very proud of what you are doing, for you are responding to God’s invitation, “Build me a Sanctuary, and I will appear among you.” (from the Septuagint: Καὶ ποιήσεις μοι ἁγίασµα, καὶ ὀφθήσοµαι ἐν ὑµῖν). (Exodus 25:8). When everything is completed, we will be able to consecrate the new Cathedral to the glory of God. More than likely, this will take place to coincide with our 100th anniversary, in 2021. God will bless us, indeed, if His All Holiness, Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, who laid the cornerstone back in 1997, also consecrates it to God’s glory! The cornerstone will be positioned shortly on the exact spot where it was originally laid: the southwestern side of the new Cathedral.

“The Church shall be a home for Orthodox Christians from every ethnic and national background. It shall be a house of prayer for all humankind, in which the Holy Name of our Triune God shall be extolled and all of creation sanctified.”

(Ecumenical Patriarch Bartholomew, Ground breaking, November 6, 1997)
