On October 17, His Eminence Metropolitan Gerasimos spoke to members and guests of the Cathedral at a reception held in the Bill Korinthias Center regarding the rebuilding of the Cathedral. Providentially, the reception was held on the anniversary of the Loma Prieta earthquake that made the original Cathedral unusable 21 years ago.

His Eminence likened the journey of the ancient Hebrews from Egypt through the Sinai desert to the Promised Land as the journey that the Cathedral community must now make from the relative “comfort” of the present worshiping space, through the challenge of a $7,000,000 capital campaign to the Promised Land of the New Cathedral.

Yes, the Cathedral community must undertake this journey together, but it is also true that each person who is a part of the community must within themselves journey from possible complacency, ease or lack of interest into an authentic spirit of commitment and sacrifice – from nominal and casual giving to the sacrificial giving of the poor widow, praised by Jesus, for giving not from her abundance but from her very subsistence. A sacrificial gift may very well be the largest gift we have ever given. It may cause some emotional discomfort. It very well may result in a necessary change in our lifestyle into order to honor it. It may mean exercising our faith in trusting God that He will assist us in fulfilling our commitment.

Fr. Anthony Scott, who has been engaged in full time fund raising within our Orthodox Church for 24 years, tells the story of a gentleman who was asked to give $100,000 to the construction of a new library at St. Vladimir’s Seminary. The gentleman looked at Fr. Anthony and said, “Fr. Anthony, you have taken all of my tomorrows and made them today. I always said, ‘One day I will do this for the Church or do that for the Church.’ I have been saying this for years. But today I honor my long-deferred intention. Today I will indeed pledge $100,000 to the building campaign.”

During November and December, a beautiful season of giving thanks, we are reminded of all the blessings we are privileged to enjoy in this country- our food, shelter, clothing, medicine, the freedom to worship our God, and countless others. Thanksgiving and Christmas, two beautiful holidays that make this time known as the “holiday season,” remind us that as wonderful as it is to receive, an even greater joy is realized through giving. Indeed, giving Christmas presents to our loved ones, or cooking a dish and bringing it to Thanksgiving dinner are wonderful expressions of giving that we all experience during this season. Yet this is also an ideal time of year to be thankful for all the gifts God has provided for us, and remember Him by giving back to our community.

As we have mentioned many times during the past two years, giving is an integral part of an Orthodox Christian’s- indeed, a Christian’s- healthy spiritual life. Prayer and fasting, two cornerstones of our daily walk with God, are essential. Giving, whether it be giving alms to the poor, providing for our families, or giving to our parish community, is also essential. We believe that God has provided us with time, talents, and treasure, and a beautiful way of saying “thank you” to the Lord is by offering something from each of these back to Him. A mere six weeks ago, we witnessed many people giving of their time and talents by helping at this year’s food festival, and it was these acts of sacrifice that made the festival such a success. This month, we will begin our 2011 Stewardship Campaign, and it is time to once again give back to God, this time from our treasure.

November 14 will mark the beginning of the campaign. On that Sunday and each Sunday thereafter, until December 5, one member of the 2011 stewardship committee will speak during the Divine Liturgy. In addition, we will have a luncheon and stewardship presentation on December 5, Stewardship Sunday. We have a stewardship presentation on December 5, one member of the 2011 stewardship committee will speak during the Divine Liturgy. In addition, we will have a luncheon and stewardship presentation on December 5, Stewardship Sunday. We have a beautiful community of faithful Greek Orthodox Christians. Please join us in celebrating our blessings the Lord has given us, by giving back to Him, and celebrating our blessings the Lord has given us, by giving back to Him, and...

Prayer of Husbands and Wives

Lord Jesus Christ, by your presence you blessed the wedding in Cana and showed us that you are the true priest of mystical and pure marriage. We thank you for the day on which by your heavenly benediction you joined us in the sacrament of matrimony. Lord, continue to bless and enrich our marriage in love, companionship, mutual support, oneness of heart, and progress in faith and life. Protect our holy wedlock from sin, evil, and danger. Foster between us the spirit of understanding, the spirit of forgiveness, and the spirit of peace, that no resentment, quarrel, or other problem cause us to stumble and fall.

Grant us to see our own faults and not to judge each other. Keep our bond of love always new. Gladden our hearts with the joys of marriage, that with one heart we may praise and glorify you. Amen.

Prayer After Meals

We thank you, O Christ our God, that you have satisfied us with your earthly gifts; deprive us not of your heavenly kingdom, but as you came among your disciples, O Savior, and gave them peace, come to us and save us.

Blessed is our God who nourishes us and shows mercy to us with his abundant gifts, through his divine grace and love for mankind. Amen.

Youth Group Fundraiser at Chevy’s in South San Francisco

With three youth groups now meeting regularly each month, the Cathedral youth ministries have now expanded a great deal in recent years. In order to continue the growth of our ministries, a fundraiser will be held on Monday, November 8 at Chevy’s Mexican Restaurant, located at 141 Hickey Boulevard, South San Francisco, between 4-10 pm. At that time, anyone who eats at Chevy’s and brings the fundraiser flyer (please see this issue of the Herald for a copy), Chevy’s will donate 25% of the revenue to the Cathedral’s youth group ministries—specifically, JOY, GOYA, and Young Adults. The more people who come to Chevy’s to eat that night, the more proceeds will be given to our youth ministries.

For more information about this fundraiser, please contact Deacon Niko Bekris at deacon@annunciation.org, or visit the Annunciation Cathedral Youth Fundraiser at Chevy’s Facebook event page. Please come support our youth!

Next Community Link November 20

Please join us for our upcoming Community Link on Saturday, October 23. We meet at the Cathedral at 9am for prayer and visit assignments, followed by visits (usually in pairs), concluding by Noon.

Our visitations to home-bound parishioners are very special to us and to those we visit. They bring joy to our seniors who are experiencing isolation from their community due to illness, loss or hardship. Community Link is an excellent way for all of us—children, adults and families—to engage with one another and to share the message of God’s love.

If you know someone who would like a visit, or to RSVP, please email Caroline Pappajohn. Community Link dates for the remainder of 2010 are: November 20, December 18. All dates are Saturdays.

GOYA Begins New School Year

Our Cathedral GOYA group has also begun its activities for the 2010-2011 school year. This youth group, intended for young people in grades 7-12, meets every third Monday of the month, along with an occasional event on a weekend. This year's GOYA leaders are Katerina Loufas and Harry Misthos, both former GOYAns who have recently graduated high school and are now going to college in San Francisco. Our GOYA met most recently on October 18 in the second floor conference room, and discussed upcoming GOYA events for this year over pizza. Ideas for this year's GOYA events include another San Jose Sharks game, an indoor soccer night at the gym, Iron Chef GOYA, and another lock-in. In addition, the GOYAns and Deacon Niko discussed Usher's new song “OMG” and what it says about using the Lord's name in today's language. If you know of any junior high or high schooler who would be interested in participating in GOYA events, please contact Deacon Niko Bekris at deacon@annunciation.org, or visit the Youth of Annunciation Cathedral Facebook page.

JOY Begins Monthly Meetings

Our Cathedral JOY group just began its first of regular monthly meetings last October 5th, at the Manetas home. The JOY (Junior Orthodox Youth) kids, grades 3-6, played an icebreaker game, had pizza and cookies, and a faith discussion with Deacon Niko- this month about honoring our parents, using clips from the movie “Alvin and the Chipmunks.” JOY will continue to meet every first Tuesday of the month at a different home each month. This month, November 2nd, our JOY meeting will be at the Kontonis home. For more information, please contact Deacon Niko Bekris at deacon@annunciation.org, or visit the Youth of Annunciation Cathedral Facebook page.

PRAYER BEFORE TRAVEL

O Savior, as you journeyed with Luke and Cleopas on the road to Emmaus, journey also with your servants, defending them from all evil. Surround them with your holy angels. Grant that they may carry out their plans according to your will, for you alone are almighty and love mankind. Amen.

Young Adult News

Each month, our Cathedral young adult group meets twice: the first Thursday of the month for a social night, and the last Thursday of the month for a dinner somewhere in the City. The majority of the young adults that make up this group are young professionals that have found work in San Francisco and are originally from out of town, and this group offers them a way to connect to the church community and to other young adults.

E"T"A"N"

October saw four young adult events take place: on October 14, the group met at Nectar Wine Lounge, on October 28th, and a dinner was held at Gamine French Restaurant. In addition, on October 2nd a community service project for young adults from all parishes of the Bay Area was held at Holy Cross Church in Belmont, where young adults from five parishes brought supplies and assembled kits which were sent to Haiti through International Orthodox Christian Charities (IOCC). Also, two young adult teams participated in the second annual San Jose Adult Volleyball Tournament on October 15-17. We look forward to many more such events this year!

YOUTH COMMITTEE HAS BEEN FORMED AND FUNDRAISING EVENT UNDERWAY!

The Annunciation Cathedral Youth Committee, consisting of Ari Stratakis, Michael Canellos, Maria Manetas, Tina Kontonis and Chrisoula Pezo met for the first time last month, and agreed to take on the responsibility of 1) Making a community calendar or youth events to be emailed out each month so as to avoid scheduling conflicts 2) Putting together new fundraiser ideas for the youth programs, and 3) To hear grievances or problems from the various youth programs that need help being solved.

We thank each of these dedicated parents for volunteering their time this year to help the youth programs of our church and minister to the Lord's children!

SUNDAY SCHOOL KORNER

A message from Sunday School Principle, Denise Yeilding:

Sunday School invites your children to participate in Sunday School and learn the fundamentals of our Orthodox Faith. Teachers have prepared the classrooms, which are welcoming and exciting. We have embarked upon a great spiritual year, and pray that it continues to be fulfilling and spiritually rewarding. For your convenience, a schedule of the first semester is provided below. Meanwhile, if you can help plan and/or organize our Christmas program this year, please email Christoula Pecz at lcep20@comcast.net. She will be spearheading our efforts this year for a great family program. Sunday School meets each Sunday at 10:30 a.m. sharp.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

The Fall has started off with a bang. Our classrooms are bustling with the sounds of many children and the teachers are excited to pass on their love of their religion. October was busy with lessons in creation to iconography. We held our first family liturgy of the year and held our first teacher's meeting for planning. We finished the month with a fun luncheon and costume party for Halloween, proving our parents are very creative with costumes.

Sunday School has been busy planning a new memorial scholarship to be announced at the end of the month. Watch for details on the Efrosiane and Andrew Vellis Memorial Scholarship.

The calendar gets real busy now as we gear up for the holidays. We kick off our annual food drive Nov. 14th, special thanksgiving services on Thanksgiving Day, and we begin the Christmas pageant practices. This year we have already begun to organize the Christmas event. Your children will be bringing home parts and songs to practice. For those children missing Sunday school, they will have an opportunity to participate in the pageant on Dec. 19th in our youth choir. We are looking for volunteers to help with art n crafts, Santa, and costumes for the event. Please contact Denise Yeilding if you can help at dyielding@yahoo.com.

Remember: If you can't bring your child to Sunday School, ask a godparent, grandparent or even a friend. We start at 10:30 am every week and always welcome visitors.

Have suggestions, like to help with a program? Contact Denise Yeilding.

PRAYER OF A CHILD

Our Father in heaven, bless my parents, guardians, and those in authority over me, for the love, tender care, and benefits I receive at their hands. Grant me your grace to perform my duties carefully and faithfully, avoid undesirable company and influence, and resist all temptation that may come my way, living a sober, righteous, and Godly life, ever praising you and glorifying your holy name. Amen.

PRAYER AT BED TIME

+In the name of the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Amen.
Now that the day has come to a close, I thank you, Lord, and entreat that the evening and the night be sinless. Grant this to me, Savior, and save me.

+ Glory to the Father and the Son and the Holy Spirit. Now that the day has passed, I glorify you, Master, and I entreat that the evening with the night be without offense. Grant this to me, Savior, and save me.

+Now and forever and to the ages of ages. Amen. Now that the day has ended, I praise you, Holy One, and entreat that the evening and the night be undisturbed. Grant this to me, Savior, and save me.

Lord our God, whatever sins I have committed this day, in word, deed or thought, forgive me, for you are good and love all people. Grant me a peaceful and undisturbed sleep. Protect me from every abuse and plot of the evil one. Raise me up in due time that I may glorify you, for you are blessed, together with your only begotten Son, and your all holy Spirit, now and forever and to the ages of ages. Amen.

Psalm 22 (In Orthodox Scripture; Psalm 23 in Protestant Bibles)
The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in paths of righteousness for his name’s sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepar est a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Under the protection of your wings I shall be covered and fall asleep, for in you only, Lord, does my hope lie. Into your hands, O Lord, I commend my soul and my body. Do bless me, do have mercy on me, and grant me eternal life. Amen.
