Three days of sharing of Food, Culture and Faith. Under the capable leadership of Bob and Lea Lyberopoulos and a hard-working team of volunteers, everything is being readied for another successful Food Festival on the Cathedral’s grounds at 245 Valencia Street, San Francisco. The Festival times are as follows: Friday, September 21: 12 noon to 10 p.m., Saturday, September 22: 12 noon to 10 p.m., and Sunday, September 23, 12 noon to 8 p.m. In addition to fabulous food and dancing—to Agapi Mou on Friday, Mythos Band on Saturday and Sunday—ambling through the agora and visiting with friends old and new, you will also be able to watch the Cathedral’s award-winning dance groups. Thisavi will perform Friday, September 21, at 6:30, followed by Spithes at 7:30 and Ekrixi at 8:30. On Saturday, the same groups will perform at 3:30, 6:30 and 8:30. On Sunday, our newest group, To Mellon, will perform at 1:30. Thisavi, Spithes, and Thisavi will perform at 3:30 and 4:30, respectively. Belmont’s Church of the Holy Cross group, Epithia, will perform at 5:30. In addition to dance groups, our guests will be afforded the opportunity of learning more about our Greek Orthodox Faith during Church Tours, which will be offered, on Saturday, September 22, at 1 p.m., and on Sunday, September 23, at 2:30 p.m. and at 6 p.m. Meanwhile, we invite you to log onto our Festival site, sf-greekfestival.org, where you can print a complimentary admission ticket, or learn more about the food being offered, as well as other pertinent information. We look forward to welcoming you to our 2012 Festival.
VISION STATEMENT

You may have noticed a statement at the bottom of our Sunday bulletin the last few weeks: We at the Annunciation Cathedral will grow the Orthodox Christian Faith in San Francisco through: Stewardship, Worship, Education, Evangelism and Philanthropic Outreach. We’ve adopted this as the Cathedral’s Vision Statement. A vision statement is an understanding of how an organization views itself in relationship to its future. The Church, of course, has its mission entrusted to it by our Lord. In the closing verses of the Gospel according to St. Matthew, chapter 28, verses 19-20, the Resurrected Lord tells his disciples: “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things that I have commanded you [i.e. the Gospel].” Jesus talks about spreading the Gospel. In other words, growing the Church, through Baptism and Teaching. Our vision statement is an articulation of this mandate: Stewardship means getting people involved. Worship involves the sacramental life of the Church, especially the celebration of the Divine Liturgy; Education has to do with teaching Christ’s commandments, especially loving one another and forgiveness; Evangelism is another way of saying “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations;” and Philanthropic Outreach is putting our faith into practice. We are our brothers’ keepers (Genesis 4:9) and we are to “bear one another’s burdens” (Galatians 6:2). Ergo, our vision for the future of the Annunciation Cathedral: We at the Annunciation Cathedral will grow the Orthodox Christian Faith in San Francisco through: Stewardship, Worship, Education, Evangelism and Philanthropic Outreach.

BUILDING UPDATE

We are pleased to inform our parishioners that Constantine Shuhaibar, a structural engineer with his own company, and a member of the Cathedral, has offered his services relative to our project, and has met with our Architect to discuss ways of trimming costs, without compromising safety, longevity or integrity. Another member of the Cathedral, Ken Katen, is also on board. Ken is a construction manager by profession, and his involvement in our project will be vital to containing costs by reviewing the Cathedral’s contract and by minimizing change orders. Meanwhile, the Architect is completing additional drawings required for the bidding process. We anticipate that we will have completed this and received our building permit by year-end so that we can commence construction as early as feasible in the spring, that is, after the winter rains. On the funding side, we are pleased to note that an additional $100,000 has been pledged to the Campaign since our last reporting and that a challenge gift to the Campaign is being negotiated. That is, an individual who has already contributed to the Campaign is considering making an additional significant gift provided the Campaign Committee raises an amount equal to that gift within a specified amount of time. We anticipate reporting further on this challenge gift at our November 11 Parish Assembly. We also anticipate announcing, in the October Herald, a major, seven-figure gift! Stay tuned.

A LINK TO THOSE IN NEED

Community Link, now in its eighth year of existence, is a group of Annunciation parishioners who meet once a month on a drop-in basis to visit members of our community who may be confined due to illness or age. We travel to hospitals, nursing homes and private residences. Many of those we visit no longer have family or friends to support them and just need to know there is someone who cares. A short visit or phone call can lift one’s spirits a great deal. If anyone in the community knows of any other home bound parishioners to add to our list, please contact Pauline Oetzel at poetzel@hotmail.com. Community Link will be making visits this month on September 15, beginning in the Cathedral Conference Room at 9 am.

Upcoming Community Link Meetings in 2012: September 15, October 20, and November 17
PHILOPTOCHOS NEWS

Greetings from Philoptochos! The summer months will soon be memories and we hope they were memorable for you and yours. September starts a new ecclesiastical year for our Philoptochos chapter. It is festival time and our ladies are already preparing the wonderful delicacies and pastries that are sold for all to enjoy. Our chapter has provided funds to help underwrite the making of pastries. We need many hands to help so we ask you to please pick up a cooking schedule in the Narthex or check the calendar in the newsletter, and come join us. Our cooking sessions are filled with great camaraderie and many smiles. It is a joy to watch the loving hands of our committees as they prepare the wonderful foods we enjoy.

On behalf of our Chapter, I attended in July, along with Foula Vasilogiorgis and Ackie Argyres, the National Philoptochos Biennial Convention in Phoenix, Arizona. This year was a special year as the convention celebrated 80 Years of Philanthropy. This milestone year celebrated all the Chapters, Communities and Devoted Members across our Archdiocese who provide for those in need. No matter whether we provide foods, clothing, medical attention, funding for medical research, children in need, or supporting the needs of our Clergy, Philoptochos has made a tremendous impact over the years and with your help the commitment will continue. As a way of celebrating this momentous year a special evening was planned at the Musical Instrument Museum to honor our agape award winners and present “Faces of Philoptochos: Past, Present and Future.” Our own Angie Leventis received a certificate of merit award which we will present to her in September.

The business of the convention showed the delegates our steadfast commitment to philanthropia. The National Philoptochos has disbursed close to $2,900,000, in the period from January 1, 2012 through December 31, 2011, to all the ministries in our Archdiocese. It is the support of all Chapters that allows this to occur and it demonstrates how vital your individual support is. In addition, grant disbursements to medial institutions in every Metropolis were presented. In the San Francisco Metropolis funds were dis-tributed to Saint Basil Orphanage Fund in San Jose and Contra-Costa ARC (ADS) Advocacy and Research in Martinez, California. It was also very exciting to see that in an hour the delegates raised $205,000 towards a new Center of Philanthropy. More information will be provided at our September meeting along with the resolutions that passed.

We look forward to another exciting year! In addition to the programs and events we already support we are brainstorming for some new ideas to help us raise additional funds that not only support those in need but help our own Cathedral. I look forward to your input and to the growth of our Chapter. We need everyone to join Philoptochos in whatever capacity you can support. Just as Christ says “I am the vine and you are the branches” (John 15:5) so it is with the good works of Philoptochos which spread His Word.

With warmest regards and love in Christ,
Patricia Aleck, Philoptochos President

From the fullness of his grace we have all received one blessing after another. John 1:16

ADULT COURSE IN MODERN GREEK FILLED

As of this writing, the Adult Course in Modern Greek, which will be held at the Cathedral September 11, 2012-January 8, 2013 has been filled. In fact, 22 individuals signed up, and the course is designed to have no more than 20, so as to ensure group participation. The course emphasizes conversation through engagement. By the end of the course, one should be able to hold a reasonable conversation with a Greek-speaking person, book a room in a hotel, shop for food, a gift, an item of clothing, things at a kiosk, buy a ticket for the ferry, use local transport. You will have learned the Lord’s prayer (which, as we will learn, was written in an older form of “Modern Greek,” known as koine (which means “new” or “modern”). You will also have seen part of a Greek film, heard some Greek music, and tasted some Greek food.
Youth News - September 2012

CATHEDRAL YOUTH ATTEND 13TH ANNUAL ANNUNCIATION CAMP

Between August 3-8, some 50 parishioners attended the 13th annual Annunciation Cathedral Family Camp at Russian River! Parents and youth participated in activities which included campfires, a zipline course, a miniature golf course, softball, enjoying nature and much, much more. In addition, for the first time in the camp’s history, Divine Liturgy was celebrated on Sunday morning by Father Niko, as this was the first year that a second full-time priest has been assigned to the Cathedral since the program has been held at the Russian River. As always, it was a very memorable week and many thanks, once again, to Ari Stratakis for organizing the camp one more year, as well as all the parents who assisted.

Currently, we are looking for additional volunteers to help organize the camp in the coming years, as any assistance would be most welcome. If anyone is interested in helping with this wonderful event, please contact Ari or Father Niko at (415) 864-8000. Here’s to many more years!

CATHEDRAL YOUNG ADULTS HOLD PARAKLEISIS SERVICE AND DINNER

Friday, August 3, over twenty young adults attended a special Paraklesis service in the evening at the Cathedral, and afterwards had dinner at Another Monkey Thai. His Eminence Metropolitan Gerasimos also attended the service, and we are grateful to His Eminence for his prayers and his pastoral care.

In addition to dinners and social events, the Cathedral’s young adult program, now in its fourth year, has shifted to focus more on discussions and services as a way of bringing young adults closer to their Church. It is extremely uplifting to see this ministry continuing to thrive and grow in San Francisco- thank you to all the members of our community for their prayers and support.

CATHEDRAL YOUTH GROUPS TO RESUME IN SEPTEMBER

After taking some time off in the summertime, all of our Cathedral youth groups will be resuming late September/early October. It has been wonderful to see the support and growth of each of these programs the last few years, and with continued support, hopefully these ministries will continue to grow for the benefit of our youth.

There will be a meeting of the Youth Committee on September 9, following liturgy, in order to decide what the ages of JOY and GOYA will be this fall (among other items). The age ranges last year were:

JOY: 3-6 grade
(Second Tuesday of the month at a family’s home)

GOYA: 7-12 grade
(Third Monday of the month at various locations)

Young Adults: age 22-35
(Last Thursday of the month either at the cathedral or a restaurant)

Upcoming youth dates will be determined after the September 9th youth committee meeting, and will be announced in the Sunday bulletin and on the Cathedral’s youth Facebook page. Please note that the page can be found on Facebook as, “Youth of Annunciation Cathedral San Francisco.” Looking forward to seeing everyone this fall!

For more information on any of the Cathedral’s youth groups, please contact Father Niko Bekris at fatherniko@annunciation.org.

All are welcome!
